TENDER THOUGHT

CHRIST CHURCH,

Boston.

This picture of Christ Church
made by John L. Krey
Jan. 12th 1877

'Tis sweet to be remembered in the turmoil of this life,
While mingling in its pathway,
While mingling in its strife,
While wandering o'er earths borders,
Or sailing on its sea,
'Tis sweet to be remembered
Where ever we may be.

Your friend
Nellie L. [illegible]

May 18, 1875.

January 12th 1877.

Boston.

Yours most truly,

Carrie F. Holman —

Valparaiso

Chili —

S. A.

E Boston Oct. 20/89.

Charles S Stratton

known as

Gen[l] Tom Thumb

Mrs Charles S Stratton

Middleboro

Mass

East-Boston Oct-17th 1875

To Lottie

Vice can never dwell with thee
In thy soul of purity;
Charity, the best of Heaven,
To thee is in large measure given;
Oh! ever cherish virtue rare,
Resign it not to others care;
Innocence shall thy helmet be,
And truth thy strongest panoply.

From Your Sincere Friend

Edwd McDonald

Superintendant of
C. C. S. S.
Dec 16 1877

Major E Nevell.
of the Gen Tom Thumb Troupe

East Boston.

Oct 17th 1875-

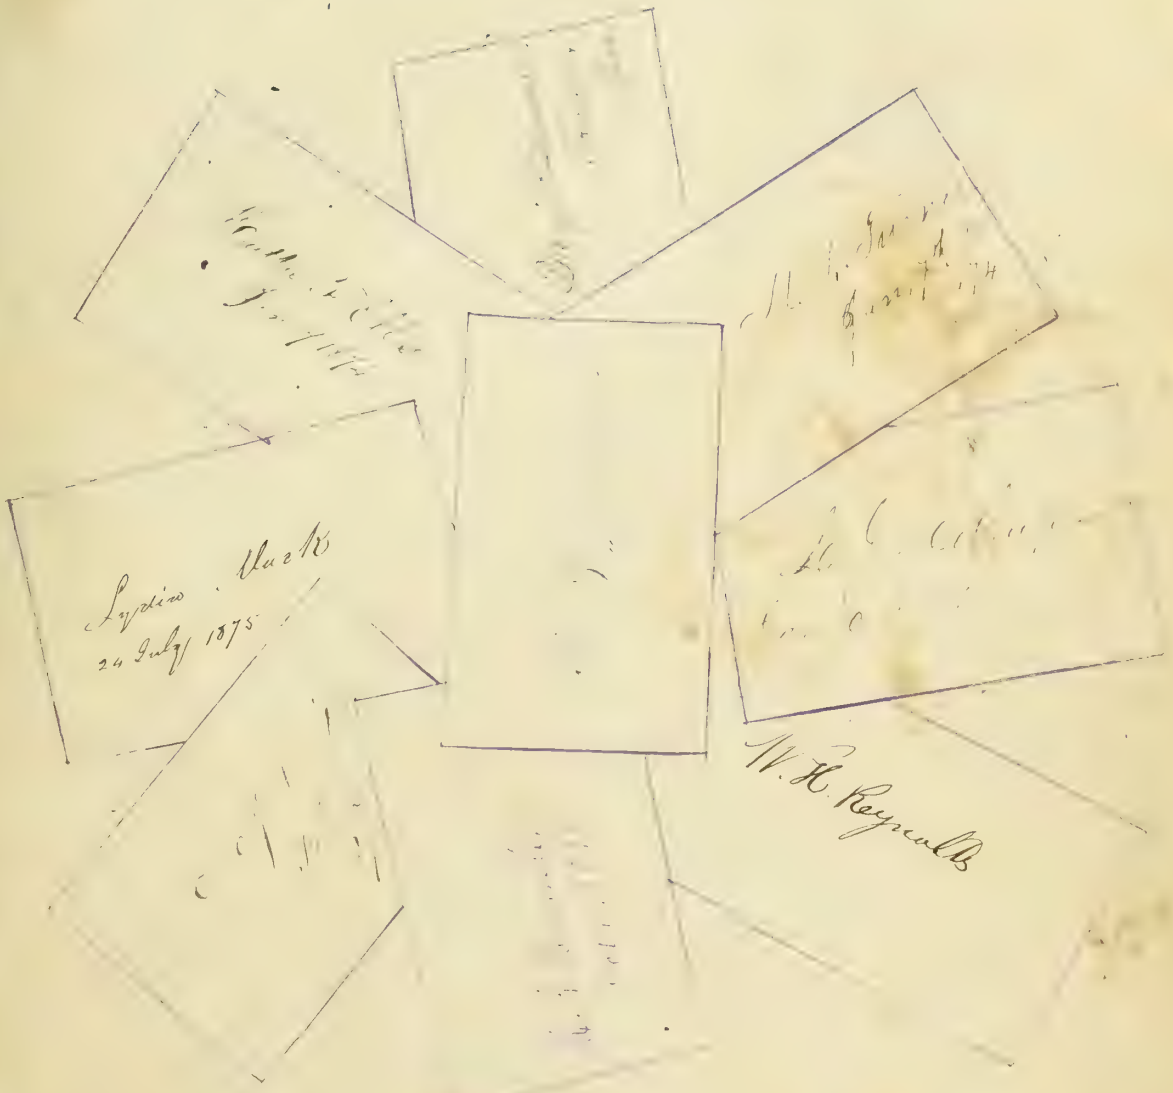
Minnie Warren

To Lottie

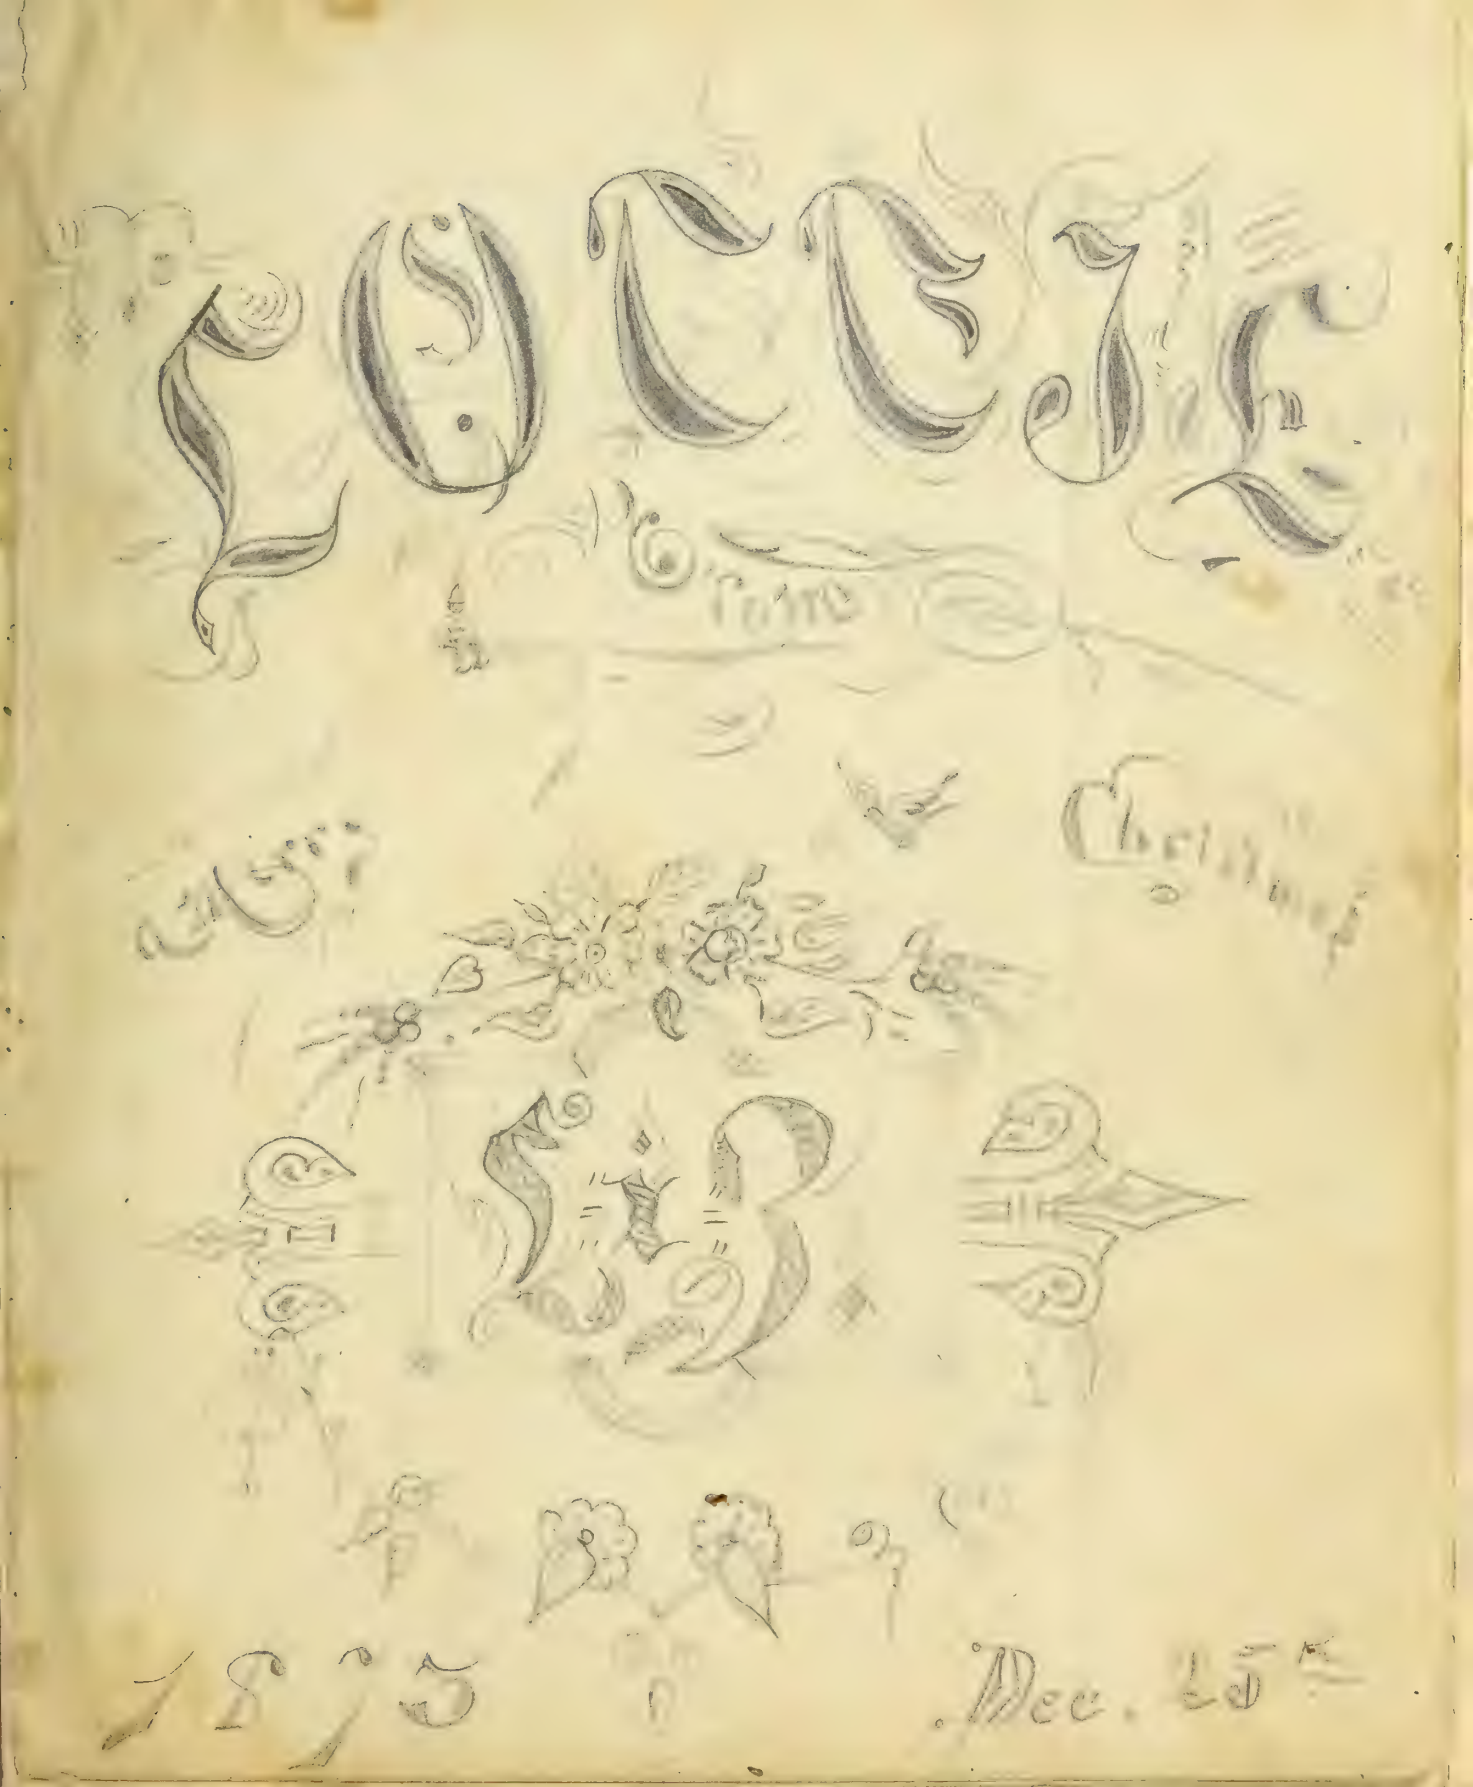
A kind word you will never miss,
And if it is timely spoken,
Who knows but what it will help to heal
A heart that's well nigh broken.

Your Friend
David J. Marshall

Boston Feb. 5th 1879



Lydia Clark
24 July 1875
W. H. Reynolds



W. B. Collenette

What is it to be happy?
Rejoice that we have found the secret charm,
We are not called blest human love to smother,
But, closer knit by Christ to one another,
Our best affections are secured from harm.
Could we be happy here below
Without this solace?
The tenderness of Charity's emotion
Toward men; the holiness of true devotion
To our Redeemer are our highest joys.

Henry Burroughs D.D.
Rector of Christ Church, Boston.

Festival of the Holy Innocents.
1877.

Consolation.

Dear Scott,

[illegible]

bless.

[illegible]

Your friend.

[illegible]

[illegible]

Hello Linda / response,

Nov. 16, Johnson

Somerville

Nov. 16th '86. Mass

Ex. Boston public Library

Ex. Rel. to Jan. 3d 1846.

Richard Harrison, September 8th 1865.

Emily Bellmann Harrison April 9th 1862

Richard Harrison Jr. March 3rd 1888.

Gertrude Isabel Harrison June 21st 1890.

George Henry Harrison. May 19. 1894.

Charlotte E. Harrison Aug 8th 1896

Mary J. Harrison Sept. 16th 1901

Mary Ann Brown Born August 24th 1844

William Bolton. Born January 9th 1864.

Henry Bolton Born Augt 20 1865

Ethel Wood Born August 26th 1883

Joseph Lythgoe Hopper July 2nd 1854

Nancy Hopper May 2nd 1856.

Rennie Hopper. Aug 31st 1886

Archibald Hopper March 19th 1890.

Gertrude Bartlett Hopper. Feby 26th 1892.

Annie Bolton Born April 24th 1864

Ada Bolton Born Nov 7th 1867

Albert Bolton. Born. December. 14th. 1870

James Varley April 1st 1843

Sarah Elizabeth Varley Oct 12th 1854

William Varley born 28th May 18[illegible]

[illegible]

Mary [illegible]

George E. Varley Born Feb 13th 1881

Henry Hopper Varley May 1st 1884

Herbert Thomas Varley. Jan 11 188[illegible]

Edith Evelyn Varley April 14th 1893.

James Edward Varley Oct 6th 1877

W. C. Townsend
East Boston
Mass.

Oct 3 1875

C. C. S. S.

Dottie,

I've searched these treasured pages o'er,
To see what ones have wrote before,
And in this quiet little spot,
I write a sweet "Forget-me-not."

Dont forget the Soiree
the rag babies

Your Friend

Susie E. Marshall.

Boston Feb. 26. 1879.

Lottie:-

May your life be as pure, and your character as spotless as the Autumn sky
This is written, and your path of life is as beautifully guided with kind words and deeds, as is the edge of this rock; then will your life be one round of happiness; you can look forward upon a future life and justly claim the golden promises made to the pure in heart in the future. That this may be your lot and your reward is the sincere desire of

Your sincere friend

Lizzie Bisbee

Girls' High School, Jan. 9th 1874.

What shall I wish for you Dottie
A life untouched by care
'is not on this side of Jordan
Such happiness we share
I wish for you a guiding hand
'Till burdens are laid down
Then when life's toils are over
The robe: The palm: The crown

Jessie E. Brown.

Sept 17th 1911

SKETCHING
FROM NATURE

I have no doubt you will find something that has been gained in knowledge for yourself and some kindness done to another.

Your friend

Boston Jan 5. 1874.

T. C. Porter.

In hours of the future when time will have shattered
Youths beautiful casket of pleasure and bliss;
When precious the sentiments love will have scattered
Like diamonds of thought, in a volume like this.

In moments of darkness, should deep rooted sorrow,
Cause to fill my heart the relief of a tear;
What deep gushing sympathies still it may borrow
From fountains that friendship will open there.

Frank A. Haslam.

2.23.74

When our school days are past and o'er,
And we can go to school no more,
Then how happy will we be
If we have spent our time in naught.

Your loving friend,
Cora M. Sherman.

East Boston Jan 14th 1871

"Read a chapter in the proverbs every day."

May your path through life resemble it today,
Strong with love and steadfast purpose,
Full of kindness and truth to fellow men,
And free from sin and its bitter sorrows.
And when your sojourn here is o'er
And you have reached that final shore,
Your name in burden volume,
May you receive a gentle welcome to the Celestial Jerusalem,
Found in the everlasting day
A mansion ready and waiting.

Boston, Dec 3, 1876

Mary E. Bixby
Boston Mass. 41 Bristol

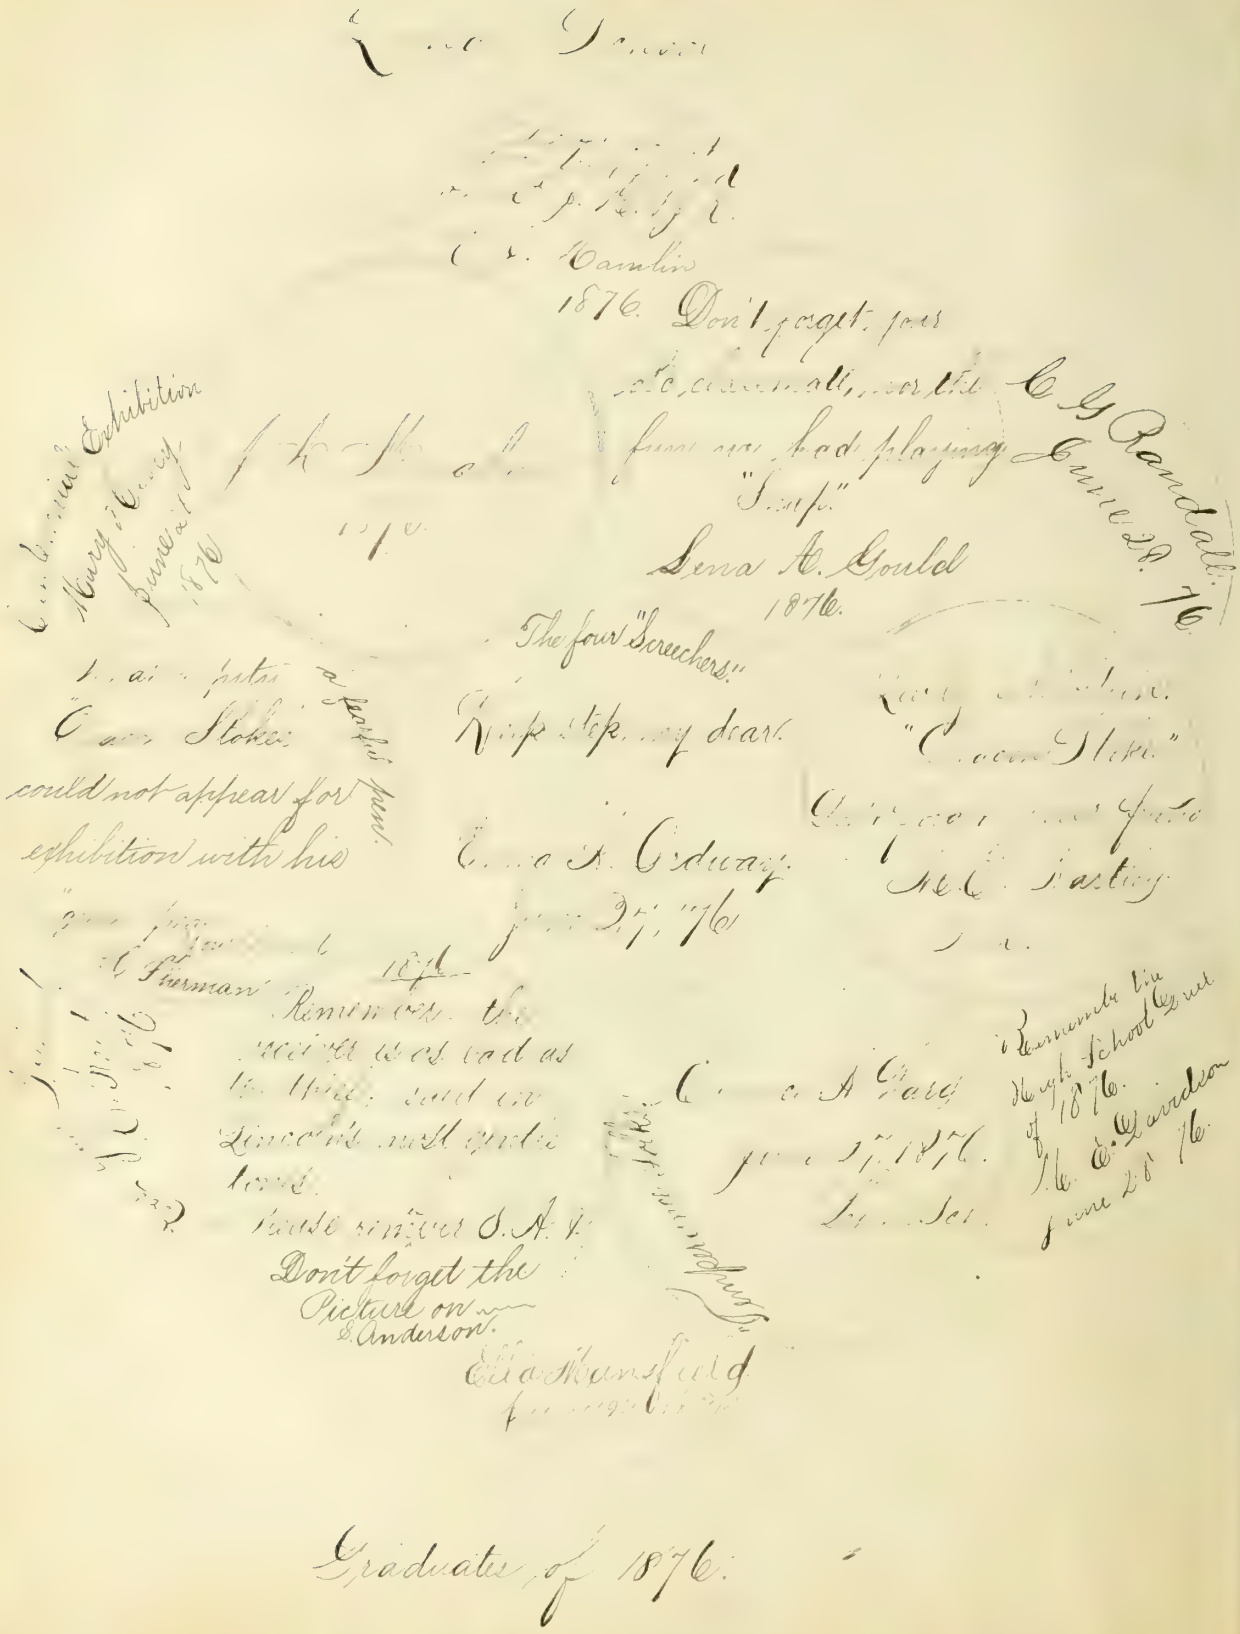
Lydia Craig. Born March 4th. 1853.

Peter William Burg. Born Dec 23rd 1884

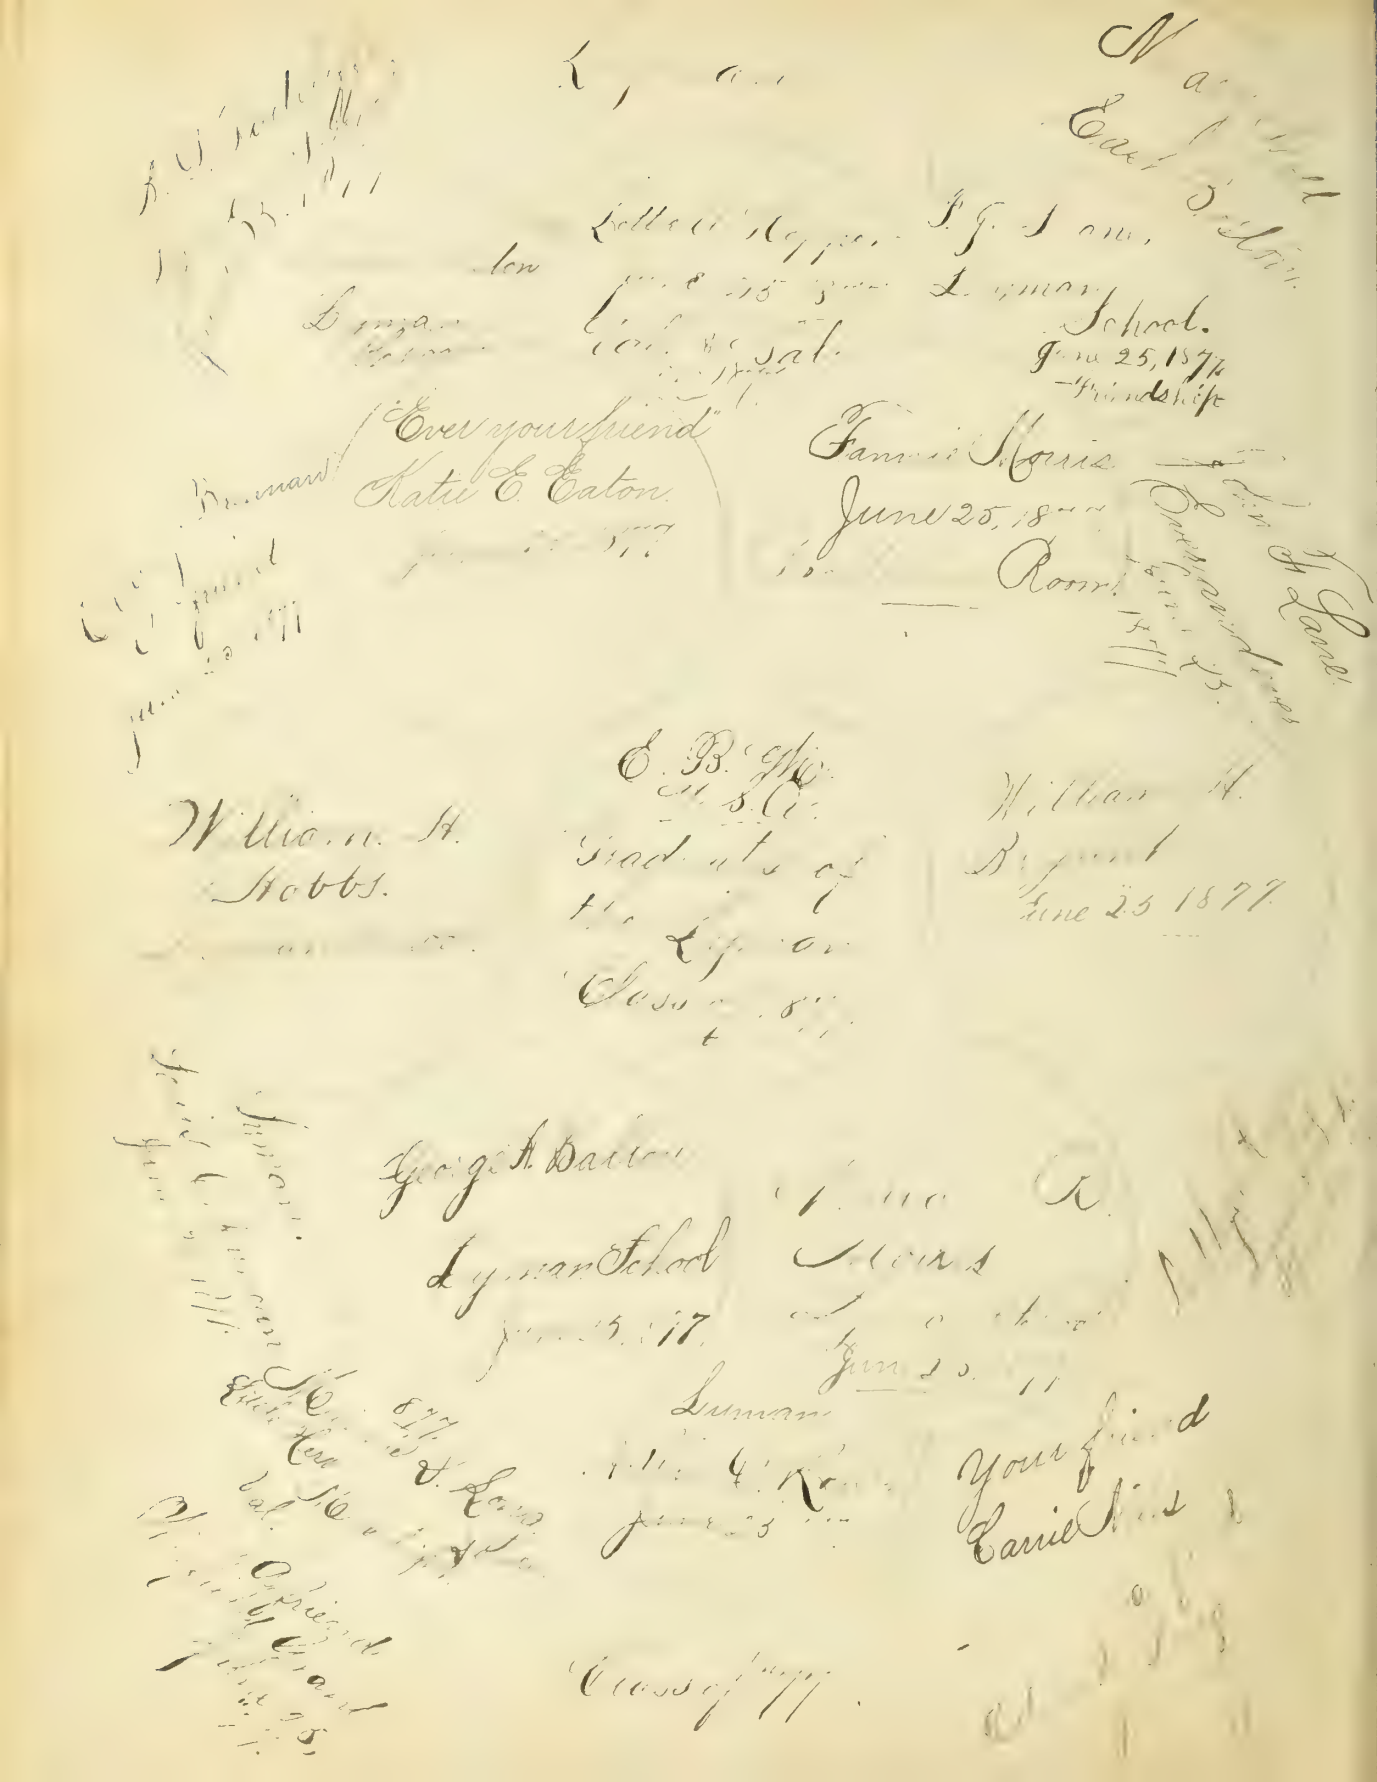
Lulu

ceased its pulsation

O. B. M.



F. W. Lincoln.
East Boston.
Jan'y 1. 1874.



Geo. W. Oamill, Jr.

Lyman School

East Boston

Jan. 12. 1874

H. W. Longfellow.

June 23rd 1874.

To Sallie

Can remember me as [illegible]

One who has cherished since [illegible] true friend.

Your Friend
Annie McCarley.

Sept. 26th 1877.

To Lottie.

Sweet as gentle Lottie
Lovely like the rose.
When the air of Heaven
Lulls thee to repose.

Angels hover o'er thee,
Softly seal thine eyes,
Waft thy spirit lightly,
To the smiling skies.

Your Friend,

Boston Jan. 28th 1867

Ida G. Johnson.

To Lottie.

You are better than all the ballads
That ever were sung or said;
For ye are living poems,
And all the rest are dead.

Delina

Portland May 5th

E Boston
Mass.

Lottie.

You ask me to write in your Album, but I hardly know how to begin, for there is nothing Original in me, unless it is Original Sin.

Lottie Cowes.

East Boston Mass.

June 3rd 1876.

"The dawn is not distant,
Nor is the night starless;
Love is eternal!
God is still God, and
His faith shall not fail us;
Christ is eternal!"

[illegible]
E. [illegible]
Mass.

[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible] 880.

The heart that trusts forever sings,
And feels as light as it had wings;
Howe'er of fears within it springs;
Come good or ill
What ever today, tomorrow brings
It is His will!

Yours truly
Emma S. Pond
Jan. 10. 1874

To Miss Lottie - under "protest."

Since you on me at sight have drawn,
And dainty verse requested,
"No funds", my answer is, and so
Your draft must be protested.

Yours very truly
Stephen A. Lynch
Notary Public.

"
[illegible] through with good will, with [illegible] love;
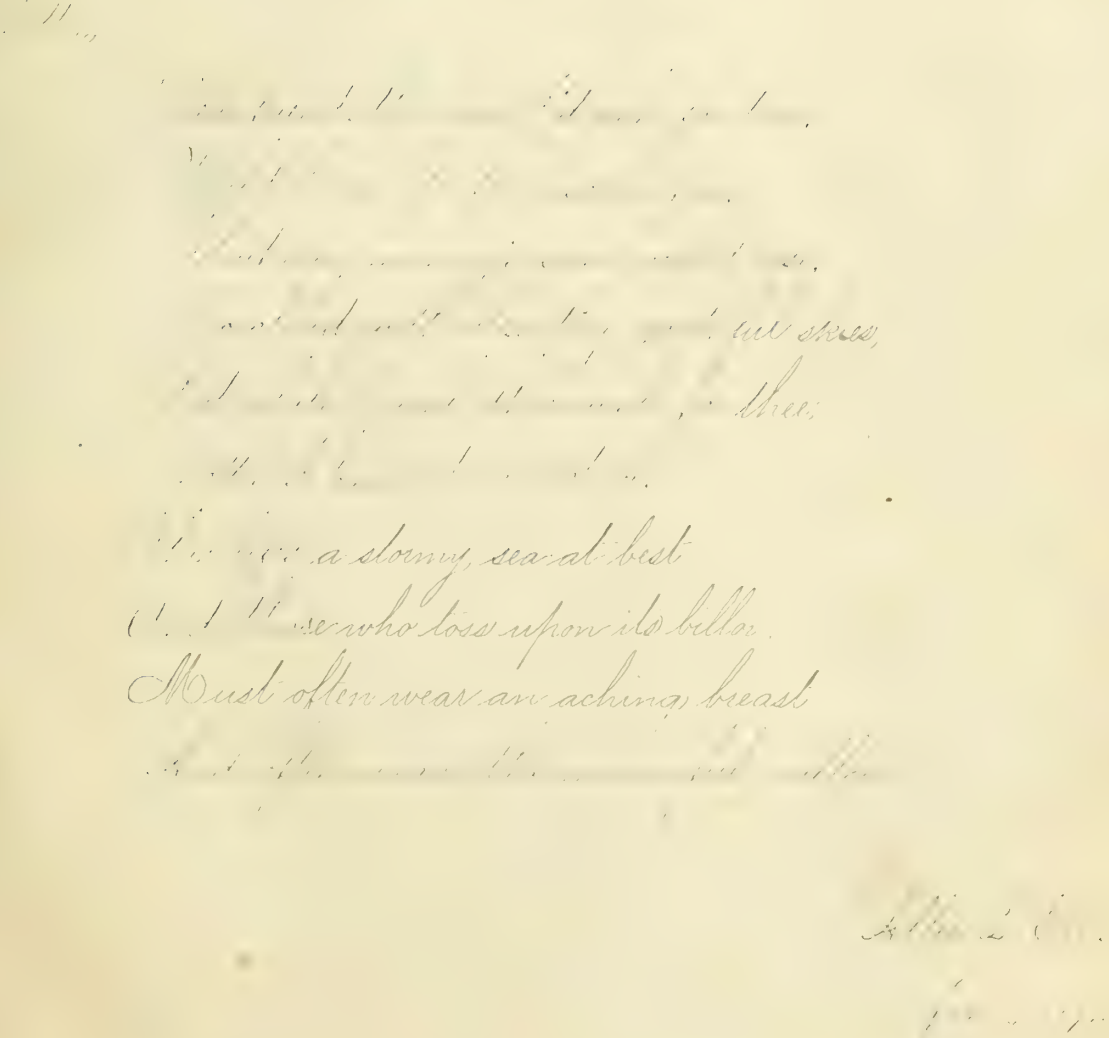
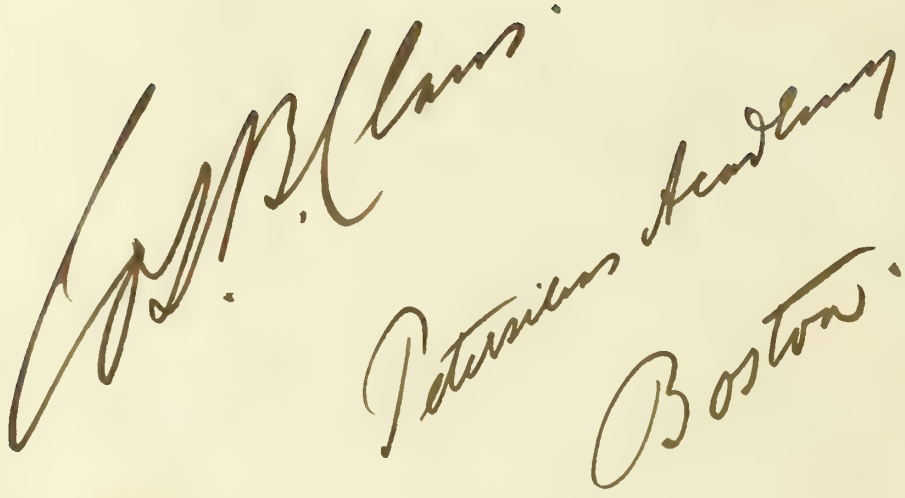
and as the [illegible]
the prayer of our year,
God grant they read the good with smiles,
and not the [illegible] tears."

Lydia O. Smalley.

Boston, Jan. 14, 1877.





Louis L. Smith.

January 13th. 1871

Lottie

What is it to get the fall'n on head,
Since riches point the goods
Let pinch the wealth of royal mines,
Entice the from their ends.

From pirates high and pleasant ways
Let not the steps debase.
Rather than Gold, or vulgar gems
A pure and guiltless heart.

Ever Your Friend

M. E. Miland

An upright and honorable life is worth more in His eyes than riches and gold.

Your friend
Carlyle Petersilea

Boston, March. 3rd 1875.

May your voyage through life
Be as joyous and free
As the dancing waves
On the bright blue sea.

Boston April 8, 1871

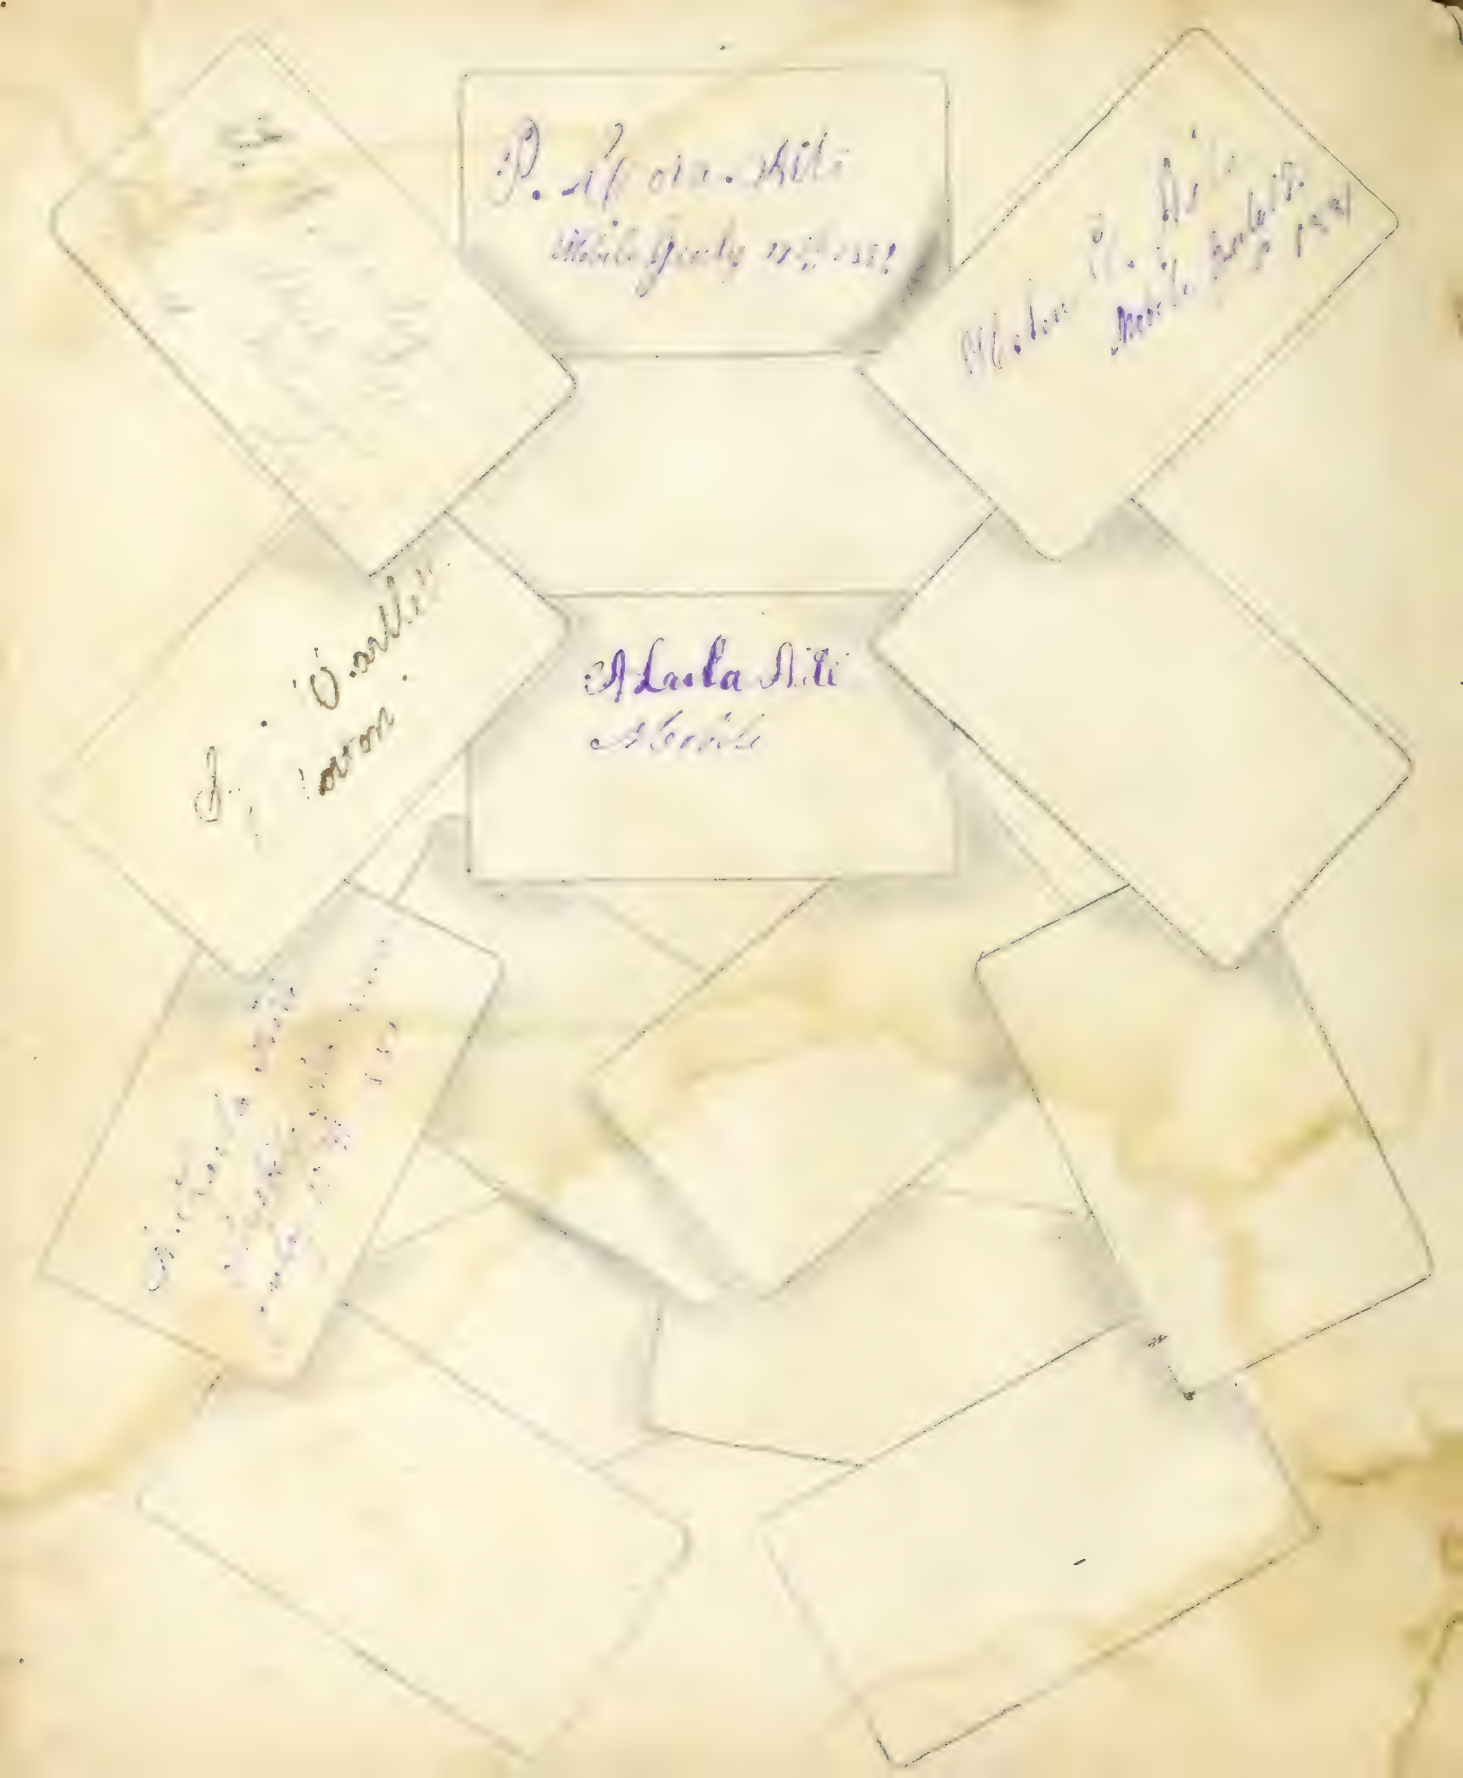
To Lottie.—

We have a home in heaven; how cheering is the thought!
How bright the visions which God's own word has taught!
With eager hearts we fasten the promised joys to look;
We have no home but heaven; O would that we were there!

Thomas H. McGinnis,

Boston.
Mass.

Aug. 2nd — 1845.—



Wm Gillman

Boston

June 11th 1874 Gillman.

John T. Douglas

Peoria Ill. 1919.

Try in Pots for these before sailing
Pelargonium - Geranium (Tambrough - Flore pleno Pelargonium - Geranium.
Helichrysum - Silvery Pink Flowers for rock gardens - very pretty foliage.

Napoleon buried in Abbey 1888
Empress " " " 1920
Prince Imperial
died in S. Africa Now with 17 others in the Crypt.

Each tomb of Abbey Church weighs 5 tons. Once only in the year the monks of the abbey have a yearly service for the Prince
Imperial on June 1st date of his death

3 Chairs from Versailles Palace with coat of arms abbey was built by Eugenie 1884 Cost 80,000 on back in Crypt - Blue velvet with fine carving on the frame
Rubens paintings one each side of altar of the visitation - Adoration of Christ - done in 1630
Triangular - Original Hand carved Frames dec. rod.
1 figure of Christ in fact from a solid piece of Ivory - 12 inch, & cross bones at foot of Cross.

2 Statues of our Lady Assumption - Michael - Angelo.

To Lottie.

My dear friend.

Go thou in life's fair morning,
Go thou in the Morn of youth;
And buy for thine adorning,
The precious pearl of Truth.

Henrietta McDonald.

Boston, Dec. 16. 1870.

Dottie:—

When years have woven their many threads,
In their dark and shining gold
As you turn these treasured pages over,
May you read [illegible]
[illegible]

It is written, Oh, do not tear,
[illegible]
Dottie! Oh, do not sever,
[illegible]

Your Friend.

Boston, Feb. 5, '11

Sophie C. Kerr

To Hattie.

If in the years of remembrances dear friend of mine
Allow me till there to write a line
To remind you when you're far from me
Of the happy hours I've spent with thee.

In pleasure's dream, or sorrow's hour,
On crowded hall, or lonely tower.
The happiness of my self shall be,
Forever to remember thee.

May all the blessings God can give
Be yours in plenty while you live,
Yours when from earth you called to part,
The blessings of the "pure in heart."

Sincerely Yours
Jessie M. Martin.

Boston.
Sept 16. 1877.

To L. H.

As o'er the cold sepulchral stone
Some name arrests the passer-by;
Thus, when thou view'st this page alone,
May mine attract thy pensive eye!

R. A. Illingworth.
Oct. 4th 1876.

may thy life be peaceful, happy;
May God's grace to thee be given;
And may love, sincere, enduring,
Light thy pathway unto Heaven.

Geo. N. McConnell

Boston, February 4, 1877

Emily Bolton

Born 10th Jan 1865

Pauline Bolton

Born 20th Sep. 1887

O. Dolthrop

June 23, 1874

James Bolton

Born March 30th 1889

Nellie Bolton

Born 15th Feb 1886

"Heliotrope."

"To Lottie."

Tho' I'm not enrolled in the annals of fame,
I'd leave a moments to thee
If you write me a verse in this "Album" my name
'Tis done to remind you of me.

When after I'm gone to the mansions of rest,
I'm long in the silent cold clay,
And nothing is left but this lifeless breast,
To show that I've once been gay.

When reading the verses of your friends dear
Perhaps of me too you should see,
Cast upon it a single kind look,
And say you still think of me.

In the year of our Lord
Addie A. Miller
Oct. 16 1875. O. Scott

A minute,— how soon it is flown!
And yet how important it is!
God says every moment is ours,
For all our existence is his;
And though we may waste them in folly and play
He notices each that we squander away.

'Tis easy to squander our years
In idleness, folly, and strife!
Until, in repentance not days
Can bring back one moment of life.
Then every improper act of them all
And every impure word we've said
Will rise in judgment, and fearful its voice.

Your true friend,
Belle B. Pierce.

East Boston, Jan. 4, 1879.

Chas E. F. Lyon.

East Boston

June 28 1875

Sarah H. Glynn
E. Boston Mass.

Sept. 20 1879

"Do what?"

[illegible]
Reflecting on the past,
[illegible]
[illegible]

Ever your true friend,

Florence Pitman.

Boston, March 10, 1878.

Lottie

Though short our acquantance has been,
And quickly the hours have flown,
Permit me to call you my friend.
As others I longer have known.

Your Friend

Fannie Hinds

Boston March 17th 1876

Lottie

May one link in the golden chain
Bear the name of your friend

Edwin J Downer

July 16th 1876

Boston

Capt. O. R. Bartlett
East Boston
Mass.

Sept. 21 1848

UNDER THOUGHT